

BRINGING THE VOICE OF THE MADHESHIS TO THE WORLD

◀ Dr. C. K. Raut directed and produced the documentary 'Black Buddhas: The Madheshis of Nepal' (left). The documentary has been screened at several places including at Harvard University, and has also won the 2011 Golden Ace Award at the Las Vegas Film Festival, USA.

BLACK BUDDHAS
a documentary by CK Raut

▲ The Non-Resident Madheshis Association participated in the United Nations Meeting on LDC in the United Nations Headquarter in New York, USA on April 1, 2011. (above)

► Dr. C. K. Raut delivered a talk on the Madhesh Movement at Harvard University, in a seminar organised by the South Asia Initiative. (right)

BROOMS AGAINST BULLETS: A SAGA OF THE MADHESHI MOVEMENT IN NEPAL

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 4:00 PM

CK RAUT, PH.D., Cambridge University
Chaired by Michael Witzel, Wales Professor of Sanskrit
CGIS South, Room S250, 1730 Cambridge St., Cambridge, MA

▲ Nobel Laureate Prof. Amartya Sen & Dr. C. K. Raut, at Harvard University. (above)

Let's build a better world, together!

Dr. C. K. Raut, PhD (Cambridge) is the founding president of the Non-Resident Madheshis Association. He is a scientist at Raytheon BBN Technologies in Massachusetts, USA. He is the director of 'Black Buddhas' and the author of the upcoming book 'Denial to Defense'. He is also the founder of the injoit movement, a social transformation initiative targeted at Nepal, Ethiopia and Bangladesh. He is a recipient of Young Engineer Award, Mahendra Vidhya Bhoosan, Kulratna Gold Medal, and Trofimenkoff Academic Achievement Award among others.

Celebrating the Anniversary! 2011 JUNE Non-Resident Madheshis Association, USA

The Non-Resident Madheshis Association (NRM-A) is registered as a non-profit organisation in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, USA. The NRM-A is a global umbrella organisation of Madheshis living abroad, to foster the global awareness of the issues of Madhesh and the identity of Madheshis, and to promote the welfare of all Madheshis.

Objectives:

- » to promote the awareness of Madhesh and the Madheshi identity around the world
- » to educate the world about the problems and issues of Madhesh and Madheshis
- » to participate in the social and economic development agenda of Madhesh
- » to voice a concern for the rights of all Madheshis
- » to encourage the investment and development projects in Madhesh
- » to promote tourism and trade in Madhesh
- » to promote an environment of cooperation and support among the Madheshi students and professionals

The executive committee of the NRM-A comprises of Dr. C. K. Raut as President, Parameshwar Mahato as Secretary, Binita Kumari as Treasurer, and regional coordinators Basant Kushwaha for Africa and the Middle East, Pramod Thakur for Australia, Ajay Jha for East and Central Asia, Madhav Mishra for Europe, Mahesh Isher for Nepal, and Surendra Narayan Yadav for South Asia. Its bylaws and other details can be obtained from:

<http://madhesh.org>
nrm.association@gmail.com

▼ Dr. C. K. Raut handed over a memorandum to honourable leaders Hridayesh Tripathi (TMLP), Akbal Ahmad Shah (MJF), Anil K. Jha (NSP), Jitendra Dev (MJF-D), and Shambhu Paswan (UML) in a meeting in Boston in July 2010.

Non-Resident Madheshis Association, USA

Our Work, Our Values

Rehabilitation of Landless and Bonded Labourers

Mechi to Mahakali:
Integral Development

Computer Literacy,
IT and Communication

Raising the Voice of Farmers and Dalits

Education & Awareness,
Health and Sanitation

Women Literacy and Empowerment

Supporting the Families of Martyrs and Injured

Promoting Tourism and Trade